German Treaty Being Planned

BIG 4 DEPUTIES IN LONDON FOR EARLY DRAFTING

18 Smaller Nations To Give Views; Aides To Plan
For Moscow Meeting

By International News Service
The victorious nations of World War II turned today toward the task of writing an official German peace treaty, when deputies of the big four foreign ministers gathered in London.

Some 20 months after the once-haughty Nazi "supermen" were beaten to their knees in unconditional surrender, the United States, Britain, France and Russia began the preliminary phase of the treaty-writing.

At the London gathering, the deputies will hear the views of 18 smaller nations. They also will itemize facts gathered since the war regarding Germany's return to the family of nations, and also will prepare an agenda for the Moscow meeting of their superiors.

Actual decisions on treaty terms for Germany—and also for Austria—are left up to the foreign ministers council when it convenes in March in the Soviet capital.

Food Strike Grows

While the foreign ministers deputies prepared to initiate their history-making talks, other important discussions were underway in London. These revolved about the unofficial—but far-reaching—strike by truckers and other food handlers.

The strike, which began with 23,000 truckers refusing to drive their vehicles, was spreading. Some 12,000 other food handlers quit their jobs in sympathy yesterday, when British troops were called out to man trucks.

Sympathy strikes spread rapidly today across southern England coincident with the arrival of 2,000 more British troops in London to move vital foodstuffs tied up by the illegal truckers work stoppage.

In six communities, truckmen struck in sympathy, while 1,500 Thames dockmen and stevedores decided to join the strike until such time as the troops are withdrawn. Only six men voted against the strike.

This brought to about 10,000 the number of dockers estimated to be out in the London area, and 16,000 others in the Liverpool district are expected to join the walkout later in the day.

Agreement Made

Meantime, the ministry of labor announced agreement has been reached on formation of a national joint-industrial council for road haulage. The council will meet immediately after resumption of work.

Last night, union and employer representatives had agreed to meet to plan a voluntary wage

ONE MAN'S OPINION

West coast models are demanding $1.50 an hour for dressing and $2 for not. The girls say that some types of modeling gives them goose flesh and they want pimple-to-pimple pay.

When organization is completed the girls will affiliate with the CIO or the AFL. And of course John Lewis' district 50 is open to them.

What organization the models join largely depends on how things shape up. There are a lot of angles to organizing models.

In New York a survey of 20,000 children reveals that 92 per cent of them never heard of Horatio Alger. The models probably would make a better score being more familiar with the "glad-rags-to-riches" theme.

It turns out the kids are more familiar with the cops-and-robbers type of fiction. The type that bears the same relation to the Alger stories as "Little Women" bears to "The Women."

Stand by for further developments.

'Skipper' Herbert May Not Have All Smooth Sailing On New Course

By ROBERT VINCENT
INS Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14—Ohio's ship of state, with a new Republican captain as well as a Republican crew, set sail over the 1947-48 biennium today with pledges of cooperation between the legislative and executive branches.

Smooth waters, however, may lie ahead. In his inaugural address, the new captain, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, set a course which his legislative crew may find it difficult to follow.

Herbert carefully charted a course of reduced taxes, rigid economy in government and a cut in governmental personnel. That was on the lee side.

On the windward or spending side, however, Herbert proposed in his nine-point, 15-minute inaugural address additional aid to schools, adequate care for returning veterans, highway and welfare building programs, and care for tubercular patients.

Coordinating the two will be the task of the overwhelmingly-Republican legislature. Despite the difficult assignment, the new first mate, Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert—no relation to Tom—expressed hope for a session only four months long as he took his oath as presiding officer of the senate.

The helm was given over to Tom Herbert by the outgoing captain, Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who handed the new skipper his commission and then challenged him to take his duties like "the baton in a relay race" and urged him to "run with all your might . . . toward the goal of a decent America."

The new skipper declared that the present load of gold in the ship's hold, a surplus amounting to about 160 million dollars, was "excessive and undesirable," and promised an overhauling of our state tax system.

He served notice also that labor's stevedores would, if he had the way, be required to face the same responsibilities of industries' supercargoes.

"Big business, big unions and government itself," he asserted, should be subject to regulations by law in the public interest, so that all shall be the servants, not the masters, of the people."

Relyable sources disclosed that a further meeting between Baruch and Austin is in prospect for today, with Baruch's right-hand advisor John M. Hancock again in attendance.

Austin's unqualified acceptance of the Baruch plan along with the controversial point of the veto's abrogation or punishment cast aside doubts current hitherto as to the continuity of American policy at Lake Success.

The informal meeting took place in New York, thereby granting Austin the opportunity to have Baruch's advice on the final draft of the speech he is scheduled to deliver in Chicago Thursday.

Austin returned from Washington Monday morning after several days of consultation with President Truman and Secretary of Commerce Marvin Hinton, Commercial Point.

A special committee was named to confer with the County Fair Board relative to plans for an Angus show in connection with the 1947 County Fair. The committee is composed of Dean Godden, Hewitt Cromley and Russell Wardell.

The youths, whom police said shot Spieth twice in the back when resisted their attempt to steal his car, were identified as Arthur Chapman, 17, and Donald Frohner, 16, both juniors in Youngstown South high school.

Mahoning County Sheriff Ralph E. Elder said the youths admitted beating Spieth, the father of three children, over the head and shooting him.

They previously posted bond for this amount pending outcome of the appeal.

Federal District Judge T. Alan Goldsborough fined Lewis $10,000 and the UMW $3,500,000 for violating a restraining order aimed at preventing the walkout of 400,000 soft coal miners.

Clark and attorneys for the union were to argue today in support of briefs already filed with the supreme court. Lewis seeks a reversal of Goldsborough's ruling while the government maintains that it should be affirmed.

The substance of the UMW case is:

1. The lower court order was illegal because it "disregarded completely" the Norris-LaGuardia act prohibiting injunctions in labor disputes.

2. The restraining order violated the first (free-speech) amendment to the constitution and the 13th (anti-slavery) amendment.

3. The defendants were entitled to but denied the right of trial by jury.

4. The fines imposed were arbitrary and excessive.

The government contended, however, that the Norris-LaGuardia act "does not expressly include the United States and its legislative sponsors disavowed any intention so to do."

The government said the validity of the order was a question for the courts to determine and not for the defendants to judge.

The justice department brief also pointed out that Lewis and the UMW waived an advisory jury before Judge Goldsborough and made no objection to trial by the court alone.

AUDIT REVEALS HOUSE BANK IS SHORT $121,000

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—Comptroller General Lindsay Warren has completed a preliminary audit of the house of representatives "bank" and found a loss of $121,000.

A full report, it was also learned today, will be made to Speaker Martin (R) Mass., as soon as members return verifications of their balances submitted to them by the general accounting office.

A Republican leader told newsmen that no discrepancy was expected to be found in members' funds on deposit with the house bank, which is administered by the sergeant-at-arms.

Hopes were expressed that the house bank could be reopened soon. Members complained yesterday at a Republican house office that checks cashed on the house bank in their home state have bounced, because their funds are frozen. Martin told the house yesterday that the loss totaled "about $125,000."

It was estimated that about 300 of the 435 house members have one million dollars on deposit with the bank.

The surprise AFL statement on the portal-to-portal pay question came from John P. Frey, president of the Metal Trades Union, and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher workmen.

Immediately afterwards De Gasperi, who was accompanied throughout the conversation by Italian Ambassador Alberto Tarichiani, went into conference with William L. Clayton, undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

It was responsibly asserted that later today or early tomorrow the state department will issue an announcement on the results of De Gasperi's visit. This led to the assumption that he would not return empty-handed, although it was doubted he would get as large a credit as he had sought.

De Gasperi and his entire party will leave Washington about 6 p. m. (EST) by air transport plane for Rome.

GI's will be required to sleep with the head of one individual opposite the feet of the two adjacent soldiers if the distance between beds is less than five feet.

All mess personnel with colds, cough, sore throat and other respiratory infections will be excused from kitchen duty until declared in good health.

Army medical officials stressed that Eisenhower's action was taken strictly as a precautionary measure. It was disclosed that the rate of respiratory ailments is lower than normal for this time of year in the United States.

The current rate is about 80 per thousand men. Spokesmen said that 150 to 200 per thousand would not be considered unusual.

Overseas the rate was said to be normal.

DE GASPERI IN WASHINGTON FOR NEW LOAN TALK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—Italian Prime Minister Alcide De Gasperi conferred with Secretary of State James F. Byrnes for 45 minutes today in a last-minute discussion of an Italian loan.

Immediately afterwards De Gasperi, who was accompanied throughout the conversation by Italian Ambassador Alberto Tarichiani, went into conference with William L. Clayton, undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

The meat cutters union called the portal-to-portal suits "blows below the belt" against employers.

Sen. Cooper (R) Ky., a member of the judiciary subcommittee conducting the first hearings, said it was imperative that congress clarify the portal-to-portal pay question as soon as possible.

Eight Republican members of the senate labor committee met to consider procedure on the bigger job of handling overall labor legislation. Chairman Taft (R) Ohio, said no final decisions were reached other than that the committee would meet and organize tomorrow.

TULSA, Okla.—If Hugh L. Akin of this city had not had an appreciation of things Oriental and a hobby of collecting them, he would not now be the possessor of probably the only Buddha shrine, privately owned, in the United States. And he got it for a compliment!

It was soon after the cessation of hostilities in China. After suffering under the heel of the Japanese during the war years, the Chinese were not too concerned that their people were laying waste the homes of the Japanese civilians. Neither were they too interested in whether the Japs ate or not. After all, the Japs had brought the war to China; why shouldn't they know the meaning of it?

As a consequence, the little invaders were not having too happy a time of it.

By the articles of war, forbidding the deliberate starving of civilians of defeated countries, the United States was trying to see that they did not go too hungry.

As a representative of the United States and a member of the Fourth Marines stationed at Tsingtao, Akin's responsibility was to see that they were fed. With 45 gowns or storerooms under his control, he was a popular man.

ADMIRATION DOES IT

There were a few things in the book that the Japs did not do in their currying for his favor.

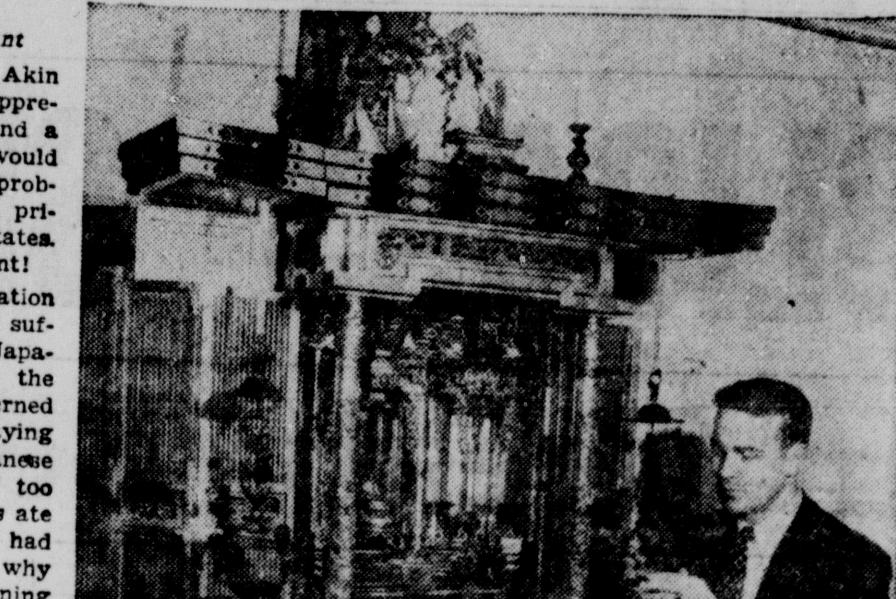

Though it must be said in fairness to the young man that the records show that this currying did not interfere with his impartial treatment of the populace.

Weighing approximately 250 pounds, it is five feet high, two feet wide and two feet deep when closed and resembles a black lacquered cabinet. The interior is revealed only after hinged front doors lined with gold leaf (90 per cent gold dust and 10 per cent lacquer) are laid back and inside screens of the precious metal and Japanese silk are opened. All the gongs, incense burners and other appurtenances of a Buddhist temple are duplicated here in miniature, even to the innumerable drawer with rare jade knobs which some authorities say the Buddha uses for his prayers.

Few nails have been used in the shrine, the innumerable parts being joined and fitted in an example of magnificent workmanship, even to the rafted pagoda ceiling supported by brass columns heavily encrusted in handmade designs of gold and bronze.

Buddha, whose name means "The Knower" or "The Enlightened," was the wandering preaching friar Gautama who lived from 563 B. C. to 483 B. C. in the country of India and founded a religion which has for more than 1,400 years been the dominant faith of the people of India, Burma, Ceylon, Siam and Indo-China and has a varying number of followers in other Oriental countries, including Japan.

But the man who became a god probably would not be too surprised to find that even one's religion must take a back seat when starvation is the driver.

HUGH AKIN checks elaborate Buddha shrine after its arrival from Japan.

Farm folk throughout Pickaway county have been invited to attend the Labor Savings Show which is to be held Tuesday, Jan. 21, in the county garage on West High street, Circleville. The show is being staged in 57 Ohio counties. It will be under auspices of the Pickaway county extension service of Ohio State university.

Those interested, Miss E. Genevieve Alley, county home demonstration agent, and County Agent Larry A. Best, announced Tuesday, may see the exhibits and demonstrations between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The show will embrace agronomy, farm management, dairying, poultry raising, swine, sheep, beef, horticulture and garden, entomology, agricultural engineering, home economics, farm labor and extension, and a special feature will be a trailer carrying demonstrations of equipment handling water on the farm and in the home.

Exhibits will include buck rakes, elevators, manure loaders, seed dusters, and many other home-made labor-saving pieces of equipment to be shown by farm men and women from Pickaway county.

A special section will be devoted to poultry and quality egg production program.

Declaring that women will not be slighted at the Labor Saving Show, Miss Alley said the exhibitions will include miniature model kitchens of the LU and single wall type, and a miniature remodeled house. There will also be a full sized kitchen cabinet containing labor saving gadgets, a wheel table, and time and effort savers for cleaning.

The show will embrace demonstrations on how to have time when ironing shirts and patching overalls.

FARM UPSWING NOT MORE THAN OTHER PRICES

COLUMBUS, O.—Farm product prices have increased 133 per cent over the average level for the years 1935-39, but Ohio State university rural economists maintain the increase is not out of line with general trends.

Economists point out that the 133 per cent figure means prices have more than doubled; they explain, however, that the percentage figure fails to reflect what prices were when the rise began.

In 1939, average net income for Ohio's 250,000 farms was $816, or about 20 cents an hour for the farmer's working time with labor of members of his family being considered free.

Ohio farmers in 1945 made an average net income of $2,303. That figure meant approximately 65 cents an hour, rural experts say, if the remainder of the family again donated its labor.

Economists believe prices for farm products will remain near their present level in 1947, but they predict higher farm operating expenses.

IRISH GIRL IS OUT OF JAIL TO AWAIT FATE

Colleen Got Into Trouble By Working While Awaiting Fiance's Return

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14—A Columbus patrolman's home was refuge today for an 18-year-old Irish girl who precipitated a welter of legalistic confusion simply by going to work.

Jane Orr Shepherd-Thompson came to the United States from her native Belfast to marry Allen Kennison, 27, Springfield, O. She found Kennison was serving with the Navy in the Pacific and not expected home until March.

Miss Shepherd-Thompson ran afoul of U. S. immigration laws by working seven days in a Springfield restaurant. She told authorities she wished to buy a coat to replace one stolen while she awaited transportation to the U. S. She said she didn't realize she was violating her 90-day visitor's visa.

J. S. Hanscom, officer in charge of the Columbus immigration office, had the girl held in Columbus city prison while awaiting a return home. He insisted that she signed a sworn statement signifying a wish to return to Ireland.

Americans, however, rallied round when they learned of the comely colleen's plight. Offers of aid poured in.

Two attorneys, Thomas A. Joseph, Zanesville, and Dale R. Rapp, Columbus, took up the cudgels in Miss Shepherd-Thompson's behalf. They learned that the girl wished to remain in the United States, at least until Kennison returned.

A writ of habeas corpus issued in Franklin county common pleas court ordered the girl's release from jail. Hanscom attempted to ignore the order, but U. S. District Attorney Ray O'Donnell ordered compliance.

Miss Shepherd-Thompson was released in the custody of Patrolman Earl Rambo and his wife.

The girl's attorneys indicated they would probably attempt to contact Kennison through the Red Cross.

National Fire Waste At Highest Rate In History

By International News Service

NEW YORK — National fire waste in 1946 has been increasing at the highest rate in history. Loss of life, too, is appalling. Deaths in "confagration" in 1944 were 35 per cent more than in 1940, according to latest available U. S. Census figures.

For the first ten months of this year our national fire waste was $55,687,000 or 24.5 per cent higher than the same period in 1945. This ten-month total is higher than any full year total in any year from 1930 to 1945.

If the same rate of increase in losses prevails for the last two months of 1946, this year will be the most wasteful in our history, with a total of $56,441,395 in useful property burned.

This will be the highest annual total ever known, exceeding 1926 when national fire waste was $561,751. In 1925 the figure was $559,418.14.

Number of Fires Up, Too

March, 1946, with fire waste of $53,252,000 was the highest single month recorded since the National Board of Fire Underwriters began estimating monthly losses in 1929.

If annual totals in these postwar days should continue to follow the trend of the period after World War I, fire destruction in 1953 would run around a billion dollars of property value.

Number of fires in New York City increased by nearly one-third in the first nine months of 1946, according to Fire Commissioner Quayle. In nine months of 1946, number of fires was 31,316 compared with 23,759 in nine months of 1945—an increase of 32 per cent.

12 Per Cent Higher

Number of fires in Illinois in the year ending June 30, 1946, was 12 per cent higher than the preceding year. There were 15,935 fires, an increase of 1,760. Property loss outside Chicago increased 38 per cent. Deaths from fire were 377, an increase of 136. These figures are from the State Fire Marshal.

In Chicago, fire alarms were up 22.8 per cent for the first eight months of 1946. Eight thousand one hundred and forty-three alarms involving losses were reported, compared with 6,635 in the same period of 1945.

Approximately three out of four fires, of known causes, fall in four main groups involving human carelessness, negligence, inattention or plain accident. Experts believe that nine out of ten fires in these categories could be prevented by good housekeeping and cultivation of habits of caution and watchfulness.

Habits of caution in the home would prevent thousands of useless fires and save thousands of the 10,000 lives that are lost annually through fire.

Factory Insurance Association figures emphasize the danger of careless smoking in industrial plants and show the increase in losses from that cause from 1941 through 1945.

Starting with 1941 as a base, match-and-smoking losses were up in 1942, 273 per cent; in 1943 they were 12 per cent over 1942; in 1944, 48 per cent over 1943; and in 1945, 127 per cent over 1944.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 14—Virginia Cain, 36, Dayton theater cashier, was in a hospital today with a bullet wound in her arm because she refused to give a holdup man money. Police held Robert Lee Whittacre, 42, Springfield, in connection with the shooting and attempted robbery after he was followed across town to a tavern by Nick Stamus, 20, who notified police.

MERCHANTS SEE NO DEPRESSION SOON IN U. S.

America Still Has Money In Bank, In Opinion Of Nation's Retailers

BY INEZ ROBB

INS Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Jan. 14—America still has ready money in its pockets and a nest-egg "stashed" away in the bank.

This is the general opinion of a large cross section of America's merchants, who stand on the other side of the counter and take in the folding money.

These merchants, meeting in New York for their 36th annual convention of the National Retail Dry Goods association, generally believe there will be a bit of a price recession toward the end of 1947. Some believe it isn't due until 1948. But none can foresee a depression, despite the prophets of disaster.

Merchants from all over the nation still report employment and wages as high. Many, particularly merchants in smaller communities, believe people are still living on their wages and that war-time savings remain in the bank.

This opinion is in direct contrast to many recent pronouncements from semi-official and public sources that America had shot its war-time wad on gee-gaws while awaiting the manufacture of durable goods in quantity.

George W. Priehs of the Priehs department store at Mount Clemens, Mich. (population 17,000) at convention headquarters, the Pennsylvania hotel, today said:

"People are holding on to their war bonds in my district."

Col. A. D. Patterson of the Patterson's department store at Findlay, Ohio, (population 23,000) declared:

"Employment and wages are still high and the prospects for the future are good. There is no excuse for a depression."

There was one dissenting vote in the matter of America's backlog of war-time wavings. Robert A. Seidel, vice-president of W. T. Grant, with 500 chain stores all over the country, believes merchants can no longer depend on such a backlog.

Despite the bright outlook predicted by the majority, merchants are unanimous in agreeing that their profits will be less in 1947 than in 1946. They expect to have to pay higher wages in 1947, to spend more for "services" (delivery service, gift-wrapping, etc.), to find competition keener as more and more goods flood the market, and to return to the old pre-war system of mark-downs or bargain sales.

COMMUNISTS GET BLAME FOR RIOT IN PARAGUAY

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Jan. 14—Communists were blamed today for incidents touched off when President Higinio Morinigo assumed personal command of the Paraguayan armed forces and proclaimed a 30-day state of martial law.

At least one person was slain during the isolated rioting which flared repeatedly throughout Monday, with civilians battling police.

Heavily-armed troops and police patrolled Asuncion's streets.

Officials said Morinigo's martial law proclamation was designed to counter-act what they described as a subversive conspiracy against the government.

Civilian opposition was believed to have been based on reports that Morinigo had decided to become a candidate for reelection in the forthcoming balloting.

VA SURGEON TO CHECK SINGER WITH HICCoughs

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—Anna Mayer, blonde singer stricken with hiccoughs was to be examined today by Dr. Lester Samuels, a surgeon at the veterans administration hospital in Alexandria, Va.

Dr. Samuels was flying to New York after President Truman granted him leave to visit Miss Mayer. An operation performed by Dr. Samuels four years ago halted a 47-day attack of hiccoughs suffered by Miss Mayer. The present attack started six weeks ago.

Dr. Joseph Rekant, Miss Mayer's physician said that he was continuing to administer a drug called demoral and that her condition seemed improved.

The first operation Dr. Samuels performed on Miss Mayer was to remove a tumor on the phrenic nerve which succeeded in halting the hiccoughing. Surgeons said another operation would be "serious and particularly tough."

CHINESE DISUNION

WELLINGTON Koo, speaking before the Report from the World Forum, indicated a belief that if America would pour assistance into China through the Kuomintang, Chiang's government, all would end well. But Uncle Sam has been generous for a long time yet China remains poverty-stricken and disunited. Why?

Gen. George Marshall, trying to get the warring parties together, said he "had failed." Details of his statement verified those of the White-Jacoby book, "Thunder Out Of China," as well as accounts of other observers.

The Kuomintang is divided against itself, promises to help the peasant and does not perform. Perhaps Chiang Kai-shek and his group do not know how. They cannot visualize a China without grafting tax collectors. They cannot understand that Chinese citizens, given a chance might pull themselves out of their worst troubles.
So they temporize, ask for loans, and nothing improves.

Mr. Koo put all the blame on the Chinese Communists who stubbornly refuse to join a coalition government. White and Jacoby maintain these have been ready to come in more than once, but wait to see whether the Kuomintang shows any signs of keeping its word about land and tax reforms. The Kuomintang talks but does not act, so the Communist group keeps to itself and continues to gain. There is fault on both sides.

If the Kuomintang can get itself together and begin to do a job, China may unite, or federalize in some way, and get somewhere. If not, hope lessens, and the new Constitution recently signed will soon be forgotten.

PEACEFUL WARRIOR

ALL the honors that have come to Gen.
George C. Marshall, his appointment as Secretary of State is perhaps the most complimentary and significant.

It is well known to all the world that Gen. Marshall is a great soldier. He bore the brunt of the war as much as any living man, and emerged an international hero.
At the age of 66 he might well have rested on his laurels. But when there came a civilian call from the head of the government at Washington, he did not shrink from it, even though, along with growing age, he might have pled that it was out of his sphere.

There need be no fear, however, that the military genius will not measure up to his civil office as he did to the military office, or that in his case the military will take undue precedence of the civilian. It is one of the chief merits and glories of our free American system that we can produce able Americans so readily when they are needed.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—A private move is being made by some Republican senators to get union leaders to agree on provisions of the coming labor reform legislation. Certain meetings have been held. Indeed, a few unionists have indicated a willingness to accept certain features like opening the books of the union to individual members only, but have balked at the proposal to outlaw the closed shop.

These somewhat unofficial and personal negotiations are continuing, however, and the senators anticipate something may be worked out in the next few weeks.

The efforts have no concern with the meeting called by Democratic Senator Murray of Montana of about six of the furthest leftleaning Democratic labor senators, men like Pepper of Florida and Taylor of Idaho. The Murray group is of little consequence. Presumably it is organizing to resist any worthwhile reform legislation. Its talk about seeking a common ground with the CIO leaders particularly comes more under the classification of propaganda preparations than a sincere attempt at agreement. The group is not large enough, since election, to make much difference.

Nor is the genuine effort of the new Republicans likely to bring agreement. The interested Republicans are mostly business men and veterans who realize they could engineer a political coup if they could get the unions into a common acceptance of the basis for reform. They do not know much about politics, but they are earnest.
They appreciate also the nation might make strong economic strides if the unions would swing their support wholeheartedly behind the move to correct abuses and stop devastating strikes. We might get better production. In fact, nearly everyone agrees the worst political defect of the union position has been its leadership resistance to any reform whatsoever, instead of taking charge of the movement itself.

Praiseworthy as may be the current moves, they ignore the basic fact that the Republican congressmen were elected last November by the people to attempt legislative reform in the public interest—not in the interests of the union leadership. The actual requirement of the situation is that the public be satisfied with the legislation, not the union leadership.

Now it is just possible that by lobbying efforts, the high geared union organizations might be able to take hold and whittle down the reform bill to where it would not amount to much. The politics of their situation at least calls for them to attempt it and try.

It has already become evident in their negotiation councils however that the union leadership will not accept anything which would be enough of a reform to do much good. They do not seem to realize that they have confronted the country with a new situation. Through the CIO vertical (industry-wide) union they have marshaled new power to bring the country to its knees at will. They have mounted their collective bargaining rights—which should not be inferior to any company right—with the power of what Mr. Truman has called "economic pressures." They do not realize for another instance that the closed shop is really an exclusive monopoly of labor. Regulations in the public interest

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE . . . Hour by Hour

Pages From the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter:

Up to another reasonably warm Winter morning, so out and about the place. Greeted by the stock that lost interest in me as soon as learned I was not a bringer of food. Back then for coffee, and shortly enroute to town where there was yet little activity. Waved to Gus Schiear at the post and to a group at City Hall. Asked about Bugs McCrady and learned he is getting along nicely, information that was pleasing. Noted H. G.
Robinson, the detective, in town and made a note to chat with him and try to learn what is in the air. Probably nothing, but one gathers no news advancing on such a supposition.

Found the plant in full swing
so soon out afoot over the paves, dropping in for a chat with Guy Pettit and there finding Jack Moats and news about the slaying of the "monster" that has been causing some damage and considerable fear to East for months. Brought down by Ralph Leist on the Creighton Craft farm. Jack took me out for a chat with Roy Young and view of the animal. Just a dog in whose family an extreme amount of indiscretion. Head of a chow, neck of a mastiff, a heavily muscled body and a tail only about four inches long. A mangy critter and one that might or might not have been dangerous if cornered. Weighed only about 40 pounds, but that can mean a lot of trouble in a vicious animal. Anyway, it is around no more.

Stopped to inspect Jack's home of which he is justly proud. A lovely place for a youngster and his wife just starting on the long trek. Back in town to view Bill Halstenberg's new basset puppy.
There is an ugly one. All feet and ears, but showing all the signs of a good hunter. Bill says the basset is a one-man dog and that because of the fact the loss by theft is minimized. Maybe so, but I'll put my money on the dog's appearance as a theft deterrent. One does not buy hours for appearance, only performance.
Bill probably has something there.

Chatted with Roy Young and settled for a good job done on the second floor of the plant building. Now living quarters.

Passed the time of day with Russ Palm and watched Tom Brunner cleaning in front of the jewelry store. Waved to Bill Radcliff, or maybe it now should be William since he is judge. And a good judge he will make. Few, if any, doubt that.

Called on Earl Smith to get the bad news about my income tax. And it was bad news, but not unexpected. Certainly, no one expects anything pleasant out of that levy. Well, the Republicans say they will provide a 20 percent reduction this year. Hope they are not just talking. We can all stand a cut.

Inspected Pop Betz's new mechanical dishwasher and was informed it will do the work of at least two women. Further proof of the fact that wages can go just so high and no higher. Before the war the investment was not justified. Now, the investment will pay better than reasonable dividends. Saw the device in operation and must say it does a speedy and neat job.

An article written by Fred C.
Clark, funeral director, has been published in a recent issue of a national church publication, "The Southern Churchman".

Pat J. Kirwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kirwin, South Court street, was a guest speaker at the Rotary club meeting, Thursday noon.

Mrs. Alice Hosler and Miss their home on North Scioto, after a three week's visit in Detroit.

General George Florence and ington, Kentucky, to spend the

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

"The Authority on Authorities"

SAFETY IS PARAMOUNT

WHEN PLAYING a small slam contract in rubber bridge, safety is paramount. The declarer should exert himself to make sure of scoring the number of points already at stake, being willing to sacrifice all chance to make the extra trick if in doing so he increases the likelihood of making the contract. Most especially should he guard himself against the risk of suits being badly divided in the hands of the defenders. That applies to all his long suits, but with particular emphasis on the trumps.

the bidding, but certainly did his stuff in negotiating the contract.

A kibitzer behind him watched him win the diamond 10 lead with should West lead?

BEVERLY MUMAW IS BRIDE OF SAMUEL SPARKS

Of interest to many Circleville friends was the wedding on January 3 of Miss Beverly Mumaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Mumaw Sr., South Pickaway street, and Samuel Foster Sparks, son of Mrs. Ida Sparks and the late Samuel Sparks, Ashland, Kentucky.

The ceremony was read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sparks, Portsmouth, at 8 p. m. with the Rev. Miles Simmons, pastor of the First Nazarene church, officiating.

The bride chose for her wedding an aqua blue dressmaker suit, with black accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses. Miss Lorraine Sparks, in her role as bridesmaid, wore an autumn-mist dressmaker suit, and her accessories were black. A corsage of red roses were pinned at her shoulder. Homer Sparks, Portsmouth, cousin of the bridegroom was best man.

After the ceremony the newly married couple left for a trip to Chicago, and from there they will go to Alabama.

Mr. Sparks is a visiting evangelist minister. The new Mrs. Sparks expects to accompany her husband in his work in the United States and Canada. They plan to attend the Youthful Christ rally in Europe in the early Spring.

The bride is a graduate of Circleville high school, and has been associated with her father in the grocery business. Mr. Sparks was graduated from Ashland high school and God's Bible school, Cincinnati.

Solaqua Club Has Dinner - Meeting In Alfred Cook Home

The Solaqua Garden club of Ashville and vicinity held the regular meeting with a pot-luck dinner Friday in the home of Alfred Cook, Harrison township. Mrs. A. W. Boone was assisting hostess at the affair.

Mrs. James Hott, president, conducted the business meeting. Roll call was answered by naming a flower, beginning with the same letter as the members last name.

Mrs. Homer Peters, program chairman, presented the program. "The Robin's Return," an arrangement for the piano was played by Mrs. James Hott. Mrs. E. A. Payne told of "Garden Notes", which concerns new flowers and vegetables, that are being introduced this year. Mrs. Payne also read a poem, "Are You a Member or Do You Just Belong?"

A round table discussion, lead by Mrs. Willard Barch and Mrs. Evert Peters, received a prompt response from the club, with many worth while contributions offered by the members. Mrs. James Hott, presented an article on "Shrubs for Pre-Spring Vases", listing several that are suitable for forcing. Mrs. Russell Perrill, read a poem "Seasons", which was followed by a quiz on the correct spelling of well known flowers. Mrs. Edith Koch and Mrs. Richard Hudson tied for first prize in this contest.

Mrs. Marcus Rife, Mrs. Simon Rife, Mrs. Park Cook, and daughter, and William Wood were guests of the club.

The February meeting will be held in the home of Miss Sadie Palm, Ashville, with Mrs. Jennie Russell and Mrs. Cora Warner, assisting hostesses.

VOX POP

Paris, New York, San Francisco, these are story book towns that people talk about. Vox Pop will take its microphones to San Francisco, great metropolis of the West, to sketch something of the character and feeling of the beautiful Golden Gate City, give impressions of its history, traditions, landmarks, and interview interesting residents, Tuesday, at 9 PM, EST, over CBS. San Francisco, situated on a huge Pacific bay, spanned by the giant Golden Gate and Oakland bridges, is a tremendous Naval anchorage, and gateway to the Orient. Its Market street section of shops, theaters and restaurants is thronged with sailors and tourists of Oriental as well as Occidental mien. Visitors adventure by a network of streetcars, buses and cable cars that climb to the top of the steep hills on which the city is built, to view old and new points of interest such as: — mile-long Chinatown; 1,013-acre Golden Gate Park; Fisherman's Wharf and the colorful fishing fleet. Telegraph Hill where Jack London was king of Bohemia and Nob Hill with its swank residences. Mixed with the city's modern residences are old Spanish-style mansions built by seafaring men and gold miners who struck it rich in the 1800's when San Francisco was the pleasure spot of the West.

'March of Dimes' Campaign Starts Wednesday In County

PICKAWAY GOAL IN NATIONAL DRIVE IS $5,000

Intensive Program To Raise Funds To Fight Polio Being Organized

Annual "March of Dimes" campaign to raise cash with which to fight infantile paralysis will begin Wednesday throughout Pickaway county. Don Henkle is the general chairman.

Citing that the goal in the drive, which will continue until Jan. 30, has been set at $5,000 as compared with the quota of $2,800 a year ago, Henkle voiced an appeal to the residents of Circleville and Pickaway county to "double" their contributions during the 1947 campaign.

Henkle said that Edward Amey will supervise the drive in Circleville, and Mrs. Harriet Hennessy is campaign chairman for the remainder of the county.

As part of a nation-wide attempt to curb the spread of polio, Henkle said, the Pickaway county drive will be the most energetic "March of Dimes" campaign ever staged in this community.

He said that every home in the city and county will be solicited by mail for donations and that the drive will be centered in the schools. In addition all 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, Granges, lodges, and fraternal and civic groups have been asked to lend their support.

All school children and teachers, have been urged to take an active part in the campaign, which is part of the national drive by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which was founded by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. County superintendents and principals have offered their assistance. The national goal is $4,000,000.

Henkle said he had received a letter from Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, stressing the crucial importance of the 1947 "March of Dimes". Funds of the national organization, the letter said, were drained in last summer's battle against the dread disease.

Henkle said that movie theaters have again pledged their full cooperation in making the drive a success and that during the period from Jan. 24 to 30 contributions from theater audiences will be solicited at all performances.

BLUE CROSS TO START DRIVE ON WEDNESDAY

Wednesday marks the opening of the first annual Pickaway county Blue Cross community enrollment. The enrollment is being sponsored by the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce with headquarters in the county engineers office, Franklin street entrance, of the Court House.

The campaign runs through Saturday of this week. A Blue Cross representative will be on hand at all times to answer questions and explain the plan to the people.

Blue Cross is a non-profit organization. Previously only persons working in groups of five or more were eligible. Now, however, self-employed persons and those working where there are less than five employed by a common employer are eligible for Blue Cross membership. Included in these would be individuals like the farmer, the small merchant in business for himself, etc.

The Jaycee hospital committee is headed by James Yost.

LARGEST U. S. PASSENGER SHIP HAS TROUBLES

S. S. America Docks After Stormiest Atlantic Trip In Skipper's Career

BY JAMES POWERS
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—The biggest passenger ship ever built in the United States, the SS America, was safe at her pier today after the stormiest North Atlantic crossing in the 34 years sailing experience of her skipper.

Commodore Harry Manning, captain of the vessel, said after she docked last night at 11:45 p. m. EST—two and one-half days late—that waves 50 to 60 feet high had crashed over the ship which was hit by winds of "tropical hurricane" force.

Despite the severe buffeting, however, not one of the 1,000 passengers or crew was hurt. The ship itself suffered minor damages of the bow, while she crashed into the mountainous seas.

Manning said he handled the vessel like a sailing ship to get her safely through, tacking and turning continuously. He said he was able to run only one day at full speed, 22 knots. The remainder of the time he sometimes had the vessel as low as 6 knots.

Many of the distinguished passengers aboard were lavish in their praise of the America despite the bad weather.

Lord Kemsley, British publisher of the Kemsley newspapers, and Lady Kemsley said the storm disappointed them because otherwise

German Treaty Being Planned

BIG 4 DEPUTIES IN LONDON FOR EARLY DRAFTING

18 Smaller Nations To Give Views; Aides To Plan For Moscow Meeting

By International News Service
The victorious nations of World War II turned today toward the task of writing an official German peace treaty, when deputies of the big four foreign ministers gathered in London.

Some 20 months after the once-haughty Nazi "supermen" were beaten to their knees in unconditional surrender, the United States, Britain, France and Russia began the preliminary phase of the treaty-writing.

At the London gathering, the deputies will hear the views of 18 smaller nations. They also will itemize facts gathered since the war regarding Germany's return to the family of nations, and also will prepare an agenda for the Moscow meeting of their superiors.

Actual decisions on treaty terms for Germany—and also for Austria—are left up to the foreign ministers council when it convenes in March in the Soviet capital.

Food Strike Grows

While the foreign ministers deputies prepared to initiate their history-making talks, other important discussions were underway in London. These revolved about the unofficial—but far-reaching—strike by truckers and other food handlers.

The strike, which began with 23,000 truckers refusing to drive their vehicles, was spreading. Some 12,000 other food handlers quit their jobs in sympathy yesterday, when British troops were called out to man trucks.

Sympathy strikes spread rapidly today across southern England coincident with the arrival of 2,000 more British troops in London to move vital foodstuffs tied up by the illegal truckers work stoppage.

In six communities, truckmen struck in sympathy, while 1,500 Thames dockmen and stevedores decided to join the strike until such time as the troops are withdrawn. Only six men voted against the strike.

This brought to about 10,000 the number of dockers estimated to be out in the London area, and 16,000 others in the Liverpool district are expected to join the walkout later in the day.

Agreement Made

Meantime, the ministry of labor announced agreement has been reached on formation of a national joint-industrial council for road haulage. The council will meet immediately after resumption of work.

Last night, union and employer representatives had agreed to meet to plan a voluntary wage

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kierman

West coast models are demanding $1.50 an hour for dressing and $2 for not... The girls say that some types of modeling gives them goose flesh and they want pimple-to-pimple pay.

When organization is completed the girls will affiliate with the CIO or the AFL. And of course John Lewis' district 50 is open to them.

What organization the models join largely depends on how things shape up... There are a lot of angles to organizing models.

In New York a survey of 20,000 children reveals that 92 per cent of them never heard of Horatio Alger. The models probably would make a better score being more familiar with the "glad-rags-to-riches" theme.

It turns out the kids are more familiar with the cops-and-robbers type of fiction. The type that bears the same relation to the Alger stories as "Little Women" bears to "The Women."

'Skipper' Herbert May Not Have All Smooth Sailing On New Course

BY ROBERT VINCENT
INS Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14—Ohio's ship of state, with a new Republican captain as well as a Republican crew, set sail over the 1947-48 biennium today with pledges of cooperation between the legislative and executive branches.

Shoal waters, however, may lie ahead. In his inaugural address, the new captain, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, set a course which his legislative crew may find it difficult to follow.

Herbert carefully charted a course of reduced taxes, rigid economy in government and a cut in governmental personnel. That was on the lee side.

On the windward or spending side, however, Herbert proposed in his nine-point, 15-minute inaugural address additional aid to schools, adequate care for returning veterans, highway and welfare building programs, and care for tubercular patients.

Coordinating the two will be the task of the overwhelmingly Republican legislature. Despite the difficult assignment, the new first mate, Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert—no relation to Tom—expressed hope for a session only four months long as he took his oath as presiding officer of the senate.

The helm was given over to Tom Herbert by the outgoing captain, Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who handed the new skipper his commission and then challenged him to take his duties like "the oars in a relay race" and urged him to "run with all your might... toward the goal of a decent America."

The new skipper declared that the present load of gold in the ship's hold, a surplus amounting to about 160 million dollars, was "excessive and undesirable," and promised "an overhauling of our state tax system."

He served notice also that labor's stevedores would, if he had his way, be required to face the same responsibilities of industries' supercargoes.

Big business, big unions and government itself, he asserted, should be subject to regulations by law in the public interest, so that all shall be the servants, not the masters, of the people."

Reliable sources disclosed that a further meeting between Baruch and Austin is in prospect for today, with Baruch's right-hand advisor, John M. Hancock, again in attendance.

Austin's unqualified acceptance of the Baruch plan along with the controversial point of the veto's abrogation on punishment cast aside doubts current hitherto as to the continuity of American policy at Lake Success.

The informal meeting took place in New York, thereby granting Austin the opportunity to have Baruch's advice on the final draft of the speech he is scheduled to deliver in Chicago Thursday.

Austin returned from Washington Monday morning after several days of consultation with President Truman and Secretary of Commerce.

Officers elected for the ensuing 12 months are: Hewitt Cromley, Asheville, president; Richard Hoffines, Williamsport, vice president; and County Agricultural Agent Larry A. Best, Circleville, secretary-treasurer. The retiring president is Marvin Hinton, Commercial Point.

A special committee was named to confer with the County Fair Board relative to plans for an Angus show in connection with the 1947 County Fair. The committee is composed of Dean Godden, Hewitt Cromley and Russell Warshall, O.

The youths, whom police said shot Spieth twice in the back when he resisted their attempt to steal his car, were identified as Arthur Chapman, 17, and Donald Frohner, 16, both juniors in Youngstown South high school.

CLARK ARGUES AGAINST LEWIS BEFORE COURT

Attorney General Appears In Person To Oppose UMW Appeal Of Fines

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—Attorney General Tom C. Clark told the supreme court today that "America's ability to administer its own laws" was at stake in the contempt conviction of John L. Lewis in the recent coal walkout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—Attorney General Tom Clark opened argument before the supreme court today in the contempt conviction of John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers.

Clark launched into a review of the soft coal shutdown and the prosecution of Lewis and the union which resulted in fines totaling $3,510,000.

Lewis, whose appeal is being handled by Attorneys Welly K. Hopkins and Joseph A. Padway, was not in court but William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor with which the mine union is affiliated, was a spectator.

Clark Clifford, special legal counsel to President Truman and one of the President's top policy advisers, also was a spectator.

The attorney general, addressing the full court, was attired in formal morning clothes.

Clark's appearance before the high court was regarded as highly unusual because such cases are generally argued by the United States solicitor general.

The supreme court hears oral arguments today from both the United Mine Workers and the government. The ultimate decision of the high tribunal will determine whether the fine levied against the

Ned Allen Strous Claims He Is Only Heir Of Father's Estate

Eight-year-old Ned Allen Strous filed a will contest suit in Pickaway County Common Pleas court, Tuesday, claiming to be the sole heir to the estate of his father. The petition was filed for the boy by his mother, Mrs. Helen Strous, as his next friend.

ONLY 968 COUNTY DOGS HAVE NEW 1947 LICENSES

With Jan. 20 fixed by state law as the deadline for purchasing new 1947 dog license tags the sale of the tags was reported "slowing down" Tuesday at the office of Pickaway County Auditor Forrest Short.

A total of 968 of the new license had been issued up to noon Tuesday. Auditor Short said a total of 3,003 of the 1946 tags was sold. After Jan. 20 a penalty of $1 for delinquency will be added to the price of $1 for male animals, $1 for spayed females, and $3 for females. Every dog over the age of 3 months must be licensed, as stipulated by Ohio law, the auditor pointed out. As a convenience to dog owners, Auditor Short said, application may be made by mail.

The value of junk cast iron is 60 cents per 100 pounds or a total of a trifile over $18. If apprehended the thieves can be charged only with petit larceny. The iron was removed from company premises but without breaking and entering.

Figuring the labor involved, plus the cost of the gasoline, plus the wear and tear on the truck, it has been calculated that the thieves actually lost money on their theft.

SOME SOLONS IN EFFORT TO GET GRADUAL CUTS

Many Oppose Flat 20 Percent
Slicing Of Income Tax
Proposed By Knutson

NEW REVOLT COLLAPSES
Senate Leaders Believe They Have Enough Votes To Continue Probes

By International News Service
Republican members of the house ways and means committee today were split in Washington on whether to draft the personal income tax reduction bill on a flat 20 per cent basis or provide graduated cuts.

Several Republicans indicated they did not approve of the proposal of Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., which would grant the straight "across the board" cut on all individual incomes up to $300,000 with a 10.5 per cent reduction on incomes in excess of that figure.

Rep. Woodruff (R) Mich., approved a tax reduction bill, but spoke out in favor of giving a greater percentage of reduction to lower income groups and graduating them so that high incomes will get a small proportionate cut.

Democrats May Help
Senate leadership supporters of the Brewster resolution to keep alive the war probing committee counted noses and were sure they can pick up enough Democratic votes to offset their loss of a handful of GOP votes.

Members of the civil aeronautics board were called before the senate commerce committee for questioning about the increasing number of commercial airline disasters.

Probes Demanded
CAB members were summoned as members of both the house and senate demanded sweeping investigations of national air safety policy, regulatory agencies and airline companies.

Sen. Brewster (R) Maine, declared that accidents are undermining public confidence in the airlines and resulting in financial difficulties for some companies.

Both congress and the state department were awaiting the return of Gen. George C. Marshall to get the wheels of international relations moving again.

Many Pressing Problems
Several developments appear to urge Marshall's early assumption of his new office of secretary of state. These include:

1. Questioning of him and Secretary Byrnes on international relations by the armed services committee and the senate foreign relations committee; 2. Action on the Polish elections, scheduled for next Sunday; 3. Establishing friendly relations with congress;

4. A decision on what steps are to be taken in China and action on Sen. Vandenberg's demand that the impasse in Latin-American relations be broken.

CORN AND RIFLE

Two rural thefts were reported to Pickaway County Sheriff Charles Radcliff Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning.

They previously posted bond for this amount pending outcome of the appeal.

Federal District Judge T. Alan Goldsborough fined Lewis $10,000 and the UMW $3,500,000 for violating a restraining order aimed at preventing the walkout of 400,000 soft coal miners.

Clark and attorneys for the union were to argue today in support of briefs already filed with the supreme court. Lewis seeks a reversal of Goldsborough's ruling while the government maintains that it should be affirmed.

The substance of the UMW case is:

1. The lower court order was illegal because it "disregarded completely" the Norris-LaGuardia act prohibiting injunctions in labor disputes.

2. The restraining order violated the first (free-speech) amendment to the constitution and the 13th (anti-slavery) amendment.

3. The defendants were entitled to but denied the right of trial by jury.

4. The fines imposed were arbitrary and excessive.

The government contended, however, that the Norris-LaGuardia act "does not expressly include the United States and its legislative sponsors disavowed any intention so to do."

The government said the validity of the order was a question for the courts to determine and not for the defendants to judge.

The justice department brief also pointed out that Lewis and the UMW waived an advisory jury before Judge Goldsborough and made no objection to trial by the court alone.

AUDIT REVEALS HOUSE BANK IS SHORT $121,000

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—Comptroller General Lindsay Warren has completed a preliminary audit of the house of representatives "bank" and found a loss of $121,000.

A full report, it was also learned today, will be made to Speaker Martin (R) Mass., as soon as members return verifications of their balances submitted to them by the accounting office.

A Republican leader told newsmen that no discrepancy was expected to be found in members' funds on deposit with the house bank, which is administered by the sergeant-at-arms.

Hopes were expressed that the house bank could be reopened soon. Members complained yesterday at a Republican house office that checks cashed on the house bank in their home state have bounced, because their funds are frozen. Martin told the house yesterday that the loss totaled "about $125,000."

It was estimated that about 300 of the 435 house members have one million dollars on deposit with the bank.

HELD FOR COLUMBUS

Joseph Hickey, 22, laborer, 221 South Scioto street, was arrested at 9:30 p. m. Monday at the Roll and Bowl by Circleville police at the request of Franklin county authorities and he was to be removed Tuesday to Columbus. The arrest of Hickey, police said, was on a warrant charging him with an offense against an unmarried Columbus woman. The warrant was issued from the domestic relations division of the Franklin county common pleas court.

FARM UPSWING NOT MORE THAN OTHER PRICES

COLUMBUS, O.—Farm product prices have increased 133 per cent over the average level for the years 1935-39, but Ohio State university rural economists maintain the increase is not out of line with general trends.

Economists point out that the 133 per cent figure means prices have more than doubled; they explain, however, that the present figure fails to reflect what prices were when the rise began.

In 1939, average net income for Ohio's 250,000 farms was $818, or about 20 cents an hour for the farmer's working time with labor of members of his family being considered free.

Ohio farmers in 1945 made an average net income of $2,303. That figure meant approximately 65 cents an hour, rural experts say, if the remainder of the family again donated its labor.

Economists believe prices for farm products will remain near their present level in 1947, but they predict higher farm operating expenses.

IRISH GIRL IS OUT OF JAIL TO AWAIT FATE

CoHeen Got Into Trouble By Working While Awaiting Fiance's Return

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14—A Columbus patrolman's home was refuge today for an 18-year-old Irish girl who precipitated a welter of legalistic confusion simply by going to work.

Jane Orr Shepherd-Thompson came to the United States from her native Belfast to marry Allen Kennison, 27, Springfield, O. She found Kennison was serving with the Navy in the Pacific and not expected home until March.

Miss Shepherd-Thompson ran afoul of U. S. immigration laws by working seven days in a Springfield restaurant. She told authorities she wished to buy a coat to replace one stolen while she awaited transportation to the U. S. She said she didn't realize she was violating her 90-day visitor's visa.

J. S. Hanscom, officer in charge of the Columbus immigration office, had the girl held in Columbus city prison while awaiting a return home. He insisted that she signed a sworn statement signifying a wish to return to Ireland.

Americans, however, rallied round when they learned of the comely colleen's plight. Offers of aid poured in.

Two attorneys, Thomas A. Joseph, Zanesville, and Dale R. Rapp, Columbus, took up the cudgels in Miss Shepherd-Thompson's behalf. They learned that the girl wished to remain in the United States, at least until Kennison returned.

A writ of habeas corpus issued in Franklin county common pleas court ordered the girl's release from jail. Hanscom attempted to ignore the order, but U. S. District Attorney Ray O'Donnell ordered compliance.

Miss Shepherd-Thompson was released in the custody of Patrolman Earl Rambo and his wife.

The girl's attorneys indicated they would probably attempt to contact Kennison through the Red Cross.

NATIONAL FIRE WASTE AT HIGHEST RATE IN HISTORY

By International News Service

NEW YORK—National fire waste in 1946 has been increasing at the highest rate in history. Loss of life, too, is appalling. Deaths in "conflagration" in 1944 were 35 per cent more than in 1940, according to latest available U. S. Census figures.

For the first ten months of this year our national fire waste was $58,687,000 or 24.5 per cent higher than the same period in 1945. This ten-month total is higher than any full year total in any year from 1930 to 1945.

If the same rate of increase in losses prevails for the last two months of 1946, this year will be the most wasteful in our history, with a total of $566,441,395 in usefully property burned.

This will be the highest annual total ever known, exceeding 1926 when national fire waste was $561,980,751. In 1925 the figure was $559,418,184.

Number of Fires Up, Too

March 1946, with fire waste of $53,252,000 was the highest single month recorded since the National Board of Fire Underwriters began estimating monthly losses in 1929.

If annual totals in these postwar days should continue to follow the trend of the period after World War I, fire destruction in 1953 would run around a billion dollars of property value.

Number of fires in New York City increased by nearly one-third in the first nine months of 1946, according to Fire Commissioner Quayle. In nine months of 1946, number of fires was 31,316 compared with 23,759 in nine months of 1945—an increase of 32 per cent.

12 Per Cent Higher

Number of fires in Illinois in the year ending June 30, 1946, was 12 per cent higher than the preceding year. There were 15,935 fires, an increase of 1,760. Property loss outside Chicago increased 38 per cent. Deaths from fire were 377, an increase of 136. These figures are from the State Fire Marshall.

In Chicago, fire alarms were up 22.8 per cent for the first eight months of 1946. Eight thousand one hundred and forty-three alarms involving losses were reported, compared with 6,635 in the same period of 1945.

America Still Has Money In Bank, In Opinion Of Nation's Retailers

BY INEZ ROBB
INS Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Jan. 14—America still has ready money in its pockets and a nest-egg "stashed" away in the bank.

This is the general opinion of a large cross section of America's merchants, who stand on the other side of the counter and take in the folding money.

These merchants, meeting in New York for their 36th annual convention of the National Retail Dry Goods association, generally believe there will be a bit of a price recession toward the end of 1947. Some believe it isn't due until 1948. But none can foresee a depression, despite the prophets of disaster.

Merchants from all over the nation still report employment and wages as high. Many, particularly merchants in smaller communities, believe people are still living on their wages and that war-time savings remain in the bank.

This opinion is in direct contrast to many recent pronouncements from semi-official and public sources that America had shot its war-time wad on gee-gaws while awaiting the manufacture of durable goods in quantity.

George W. Priehs of the Priehs department store at Mount Clemens, Mich. (population 17,000) at convention headquarters, the Pennsylvania hotel, today said:

"People are holding on to their war bonds in my district."

Col. A. D. Patterson of the Patterson's department store at Findlay, Ohio, (population 23,000) declared:

"Employment and wages are still high and the prospects for the future are good. There is no excuse for a depression."

There was one dissenting vote in the matter of America's backlog of war-time wavings. Robert A. Seidel, vice-president of W. T. Grant, with 500 chain stores all over the country, believes merchants can no longer depend on such a backlog.

Despite the bright outlook predicted by the majority, merchants are unanimous in agreeing that war profits will be less in 1947 than in 1946. They expect to have to pay higher wages in 1947, to spend more for "services" (delivery service, gift-wrapping, etc.), to find competition keener as more and more goods flood the market, and to return to the old pre-war system of mark-downs or bargain sales.

COMMUNISTS GET BLAME FOR RIOT IN PARAGUAY

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Jan. 14—Communists were blamed today for incidents touched off when President Higinio Morinigo assumed personal command of the Paraguayan armed forces and proclaimed a 30-day state of martial law.

Buenos Aires reported that Morinigo established a new cabinet to replace the coalition government which resigned Saturday due to differences of opinion concerning the amount of participation by the various factions. The new regime was supposed to be sworn in today.

At least one person was slain during the isolated rioting which flared repeatedly throughout Monday, with civilians battling police.

Heavily-armed troops and police patrolled Asuncion's streets.

Officials said Morinigo's martial law proclamation was designed to counter-act what they described as a subversive conspiracy against the government.

Civilian opposition was believed to have been based on reports that Morinigo had decided to become a candidate for reelection in the forthcoming balloting.

VA SURGEON TO CHECK SINGER WITH HICCoughS

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—Anna Mayer, blonde singer stricken with hiccoughs was to be examined today by Dr. Lester Samuels, a surgeon at the veterans administration hospital in Alexandria, Va.

Dr. Samuels was flying to New York after President Truman granted him leave to visit Miss Mayer. An operation performed by Dr. Samuels four years ago halted a 47-day attack of hiccoughs suffered by Miss Mayer. The present attack started six weeks ago. Dr. Joseph Rekant, Miss Mayer's physician said that he was continuing to administer a drug called demoral and that her condition seemed improved.

The first operation Dr. Samuels performed on Miss Mayer was to remove a tumor on the phrenic nerve which succeeded in halting the hiccoughing. Surgeons said another operation would be "serious and particularly tough."

CHINESE DISUNION

WELLINGTON Koo, speaking before the Report from the World Forum, indicated a belief that if America would pour assistance into China through the Kuomintang, Chiang's government, all would end well. But Uncle Sam has been generous for a long time yet China remains poverty-stricken and disunited. Why?

Gen. George Marshall, trying to get the warring parties together, said he "had failed." Details of his statement verified those of the White-Jacoby book, "Thunder Out Of China", as well as accounts of other observers.

The Kuomintang is divided against itself, promises to help the peasant and does not perform. Perhaps Chiang Kai-shek and his group do not know how. They cannot visualize a China without grafting tax collectors. They cannot understand that Chinese citizens, given a chance might pull themselves out of their worst troubles. So they temporize, ask for loans, and nothing improves.

Mr. Koo put all the blame on the Chinese Communists who stubbornly refuse to join a coalition government. White and Jacoby maintain these have been ready to come in more than once, but wait to see whether the Kuomintang shows any signs of keeping its word about land and tax reforms. The Kuomintang talks but does not act, so the Communist group keeps to itself and continues to gain. There is fault on both sides.

If the Kuomintang can get itself together and begin to do a job, China may unite, or federalize in some way, and get somewhere. If not, hope lessens, and the new Constitution recently signed will soon be forgotten.

PEACEFUL WARRIOR

OF all the honors that have come to Gen. George C. Marshall, his appointment as Secretary of State is perhaps the most complimentary and significant.

It is well known to all the world that Gen. Marshall is a great soldier. He bore the brunt of the war as much as any living man, and emerged an international hero. At the age of 66 he might well have rested on his laurels. But when there came a civilian call from the head of the government at Washington, he did not shrink from it; even though, along with growing age, he might have pled that it was out of his sphere.

There need be no fear, however, that the military genius will not measure up to his civil office as he did to the military office, or that in his case the military will take undue precedence of the civilian. It is one of the chief merits and glories of our free American system that we can produce able Americans so readily when they are needed.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—A private move is being made by some Republican senators to get union leaders to agree on provisions of the coming labor reform legislation. Certain meetings have been held. Indeed, a few unionists have indicated a willingness to accept certain features like opening the books of the union to individual members only, but have balked at the proposal to outlaw the closed shop.

These somewhat unofficial and personal negotiations are continuing, however, and the senators anticipate something may be worked out in the next few weeks.

The efforts have no concern with the meeting called by Democratic Senator Murray of Montana of about six of the furthest leftleaning Democratic labor senators, men like Pepper of Florida and Taylor of Idaho. The Murray group is of little consequence. Presumably it is organizing to resist any worthwhile reform legislation. Its talk about seeking a common ground with the CIO leaders particularly comes more under the classification of propaganda preparations than a sincere attempt at agreement. The group is not large enough, since election, to make much difference.

Nor is the genuine effort of the new Republicans likely to bring agreement. The interested Republicans are mostly businessmen and veterans who realize they could engineer a political coup if they could get the unions into a common acceptance of the basis for reform. They do not know much about politics, but they are earnest. They appreciate also the nation might make strong economic strides if the unions would swing their support wholeheartedly behind the move to correct abuses and stop devastating strikes. We might get better production. In fact, nearly everyone agrees the worst political defect of the union position has been its leadership resistance to any reform whatsoever, instead of taking charge of the movement itself.

Praiseworthy as may be the current moves, they ignore the basic fact that the Republican congressmen were elected last November by the people to attempt legislative reform in the public interest—not in the interests of the union leadership. The actual requirement of the situation is that the public be satisfied with the legislation, not the union leadership.

Now it is just possible that by lobbying efforts, the high geared union organizations might be able to take hold and whittle down the reform bill to where it would not amount to much. The politics of their situation at least calls for them to attempt it and try.

It has already become evident in their negotiation councils however that the union leadership will not accept anything which would be enough of a reform to do much good. They do not seem to realize that they have confronted the country with a new situation. Through the CIO vertical (industry-wide) union they have marshaled new power to bring the country to its knees at will. They have mounted their collective bargaining rights—which should not be inferior to any company right—with the power of what Mr. Truman has called "economic pressures." They do not realize for another instance that the closed shop is really an exclusive monopoly of labor. Regulations in the public interest

Up to another reasonably warm Winter morning, so out and about the place. Greeted by the stock that lost interest in me as soon as learned I was not a bringer of food. Back then for coffee, and shortly enroute to town where there was yet little activity. Waved to Guy Schiear at the post and to a group at City Hall. Asked about Bugs McCrady and learned he is getting along nicely, information that was pleasing. Noted H. G. Robinson, the detective, in town and made a note to chat with him and try to learn what is in the air. Probably nothing, but one gathers no news advancing on such a supposition.

Found the plant in full swing so soon out afoot over the paves, dropping in for a chat with Guy Pettit and there finding Jack Moats and news about the slaying of the "monster" that has been causing some damage and considerable fear to East for months. view of the animal. Just a dog in whose family an extreme amount of indiscretion. Head of a chow, neck of a mastiff, a heavily muscled body and a tail only about four inches long. A mangy critter and one that might or might not have been dangerous if cornered. Weighed only about 40 pounds, but that can mean a lot of trouble in a vicious animal. Anyway, it is around no more.

Stopped to inspect Jack's home of which he is justly proud. A lovely place for a youngster and his wife just starting on the long trek. Back in town to view Bill Halstenberg's new bassett puppy. There is an ugly one. All feet and ears, but showing all the signs of a good hunter. Bill says the bassett is a one-man dog and that because of the fact the loss by theft is minimized. Maybe so, but I'll put my money on the dog's appearance as a theft deterrent. One does not buy hounds for appearance, only performance. Bill probably has something there.

settled for a good job done on the second floor of the plant building. Now living quarters. Passed the time of day with Russ Palm and watched Tom Brunner cleaning in front of the jewelry store. Waved to Bill Radcliff, or maybe it now should be William since he is judge. And a good judge he will make. Few, if any, doubt that.

Called on Earl Smith to get the bad news about my income tax. And it was bad news, but not unexpected. Certainly, no one expects anything pleasant out of that levy. Well, the Republicans say they will provide a 20 percent reduction this year. Hope they are not just talking. We can all stand a cut.

Inspected Pop Betz's new mechanical dishwasher and was informed it will do the work of at least two women. Further proof of the fact that wages can go just so high and no higher. Before the war the investment was not justified. Now, the investment will pay better than reasonable dividends. Saw the device in operation and must say it does a speedy and neat job.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

"The Authority on Authorities"

WHEN PLAYING a small slam contract in rubber bridge, safety is paramount. The declarer should exert himself to make sure of scoring the number of points already at stake, being willing to sacrifice all chance to make the extra trick if in doing so he increases the likelihood of making the contract. Most especially should he guard himself against the risk of suits being badly divided in the hands of the defenders. That applies to all his long suits, but with particular emphasis on the trumps.

landmarks, and interview interesting residents, Tuesday, at 9 PM, EST, over CBS. San Francisco, situated on a huge Pacific bay, spanned by the giant Golden Gate and Oakland bridges, is a tremendous Naval anchorage and gateway to the Orient. Its Market street section of shops, theaters and restaurants is thronged with sailors and tourists of Oriental as well as Occidental mien. Visitors adventure by a network of streetcars, buses, and cable cars that climb to the top of the steep hills on which the city is built, to view old and new points of interest such as: — mile-long Chinatown; 1,013-acre Golden Gate Park; Fisherman's Wharf and the colorful fishing fleet. Telegraph Hill where Jack London was king of Bohemia and Nob Hill with its swank residences. Mixed with the city's modern residences are old Spanish-style mansions built by seafaring men and gold miners who struck it rich in the 1800's when San Francisco was the pleasure spot of the West.

AMOS 'N' ANDY

The Kingfish's wife enters a letter writing contest put on by a pancake flour company to determine the happiest married couple, during the "Amos 'n' Andy" comedy, Tuesday, at 9 p.m. Shortly afterwards she has a quarrel with the Kingfish and leaves him. The next day, the Kingfish is told he and his wife have won the contest and a photographer is on his way to take their picture. But the Kingfish's wife is nowhere to be found, and the situation becomes very complicated—with first prize hanging in the balance.

DATE WITH JUDY

A special feature of the "Date With Judy" broadcast, Tuesday, at 8:30 p.m., will be the guest appearance of David Street singing "Little Did I Know," a tune written by Hal Borne, musical director of the "Judy" program, and with lyrics written in collaboration with Aileen Leslie, the show's scriptwriter.

THE FALCON

After raising his blackmail demands on a wealthy woman, a pretty despicable little guy is considered by her as better off dead until she learns that "Shakedowns Can Be Murder," as revealed on "The Adventures Of The Falcon" broadcast, Tuesday, 8:30-9 p.m., EST, over Mutual.

IT'S UP TO YOUTH

F. Chase Taylor will, for the first time in his network career, assume a straight role when he becomes moderator of Mutual's "It's Up To Youth" panel program beginning Wednesday, its present road schedule.

(8:30-9 p.m., EST). Until now, Taylor has been widely known as a wit, having gained such fame in radio and later through his writings under the nom de plume of "Colonel Stoopnagle." The first problem with which Mr. Taylor, together with the youthful participants, will be confronted is the concern of a young girl over her parents not permitting her to participate in a bowling tournament, thus causing her loss of friends and considerable personal embarrassment. After a childhood in Buffalo, N. Y., his native town, Taylor served for more than a year with the U. S. Naval Reserve, later working in his father's lumber business and, before entering radio in 1931, conducting his own lumber business. His subsequent connection with a local station in Buffalo led to the formation of the "Stoopnagle and Bud" (Bud Hulick) comedy team, successful for many years on the air. More recently, he has been heard singly on leading network shows. Taylor will replace Bill Slater, whose New York commitments make it impossible for him to continue with the youth panel program in its present road schedule.

BECAUSE of "collusion," Actress Virginia Engels, above, is denied a divorce from James R. Dennis, radio executive. A Los Angeles judge found that the couple had "agreed" upon arranging alleged grounds.

'March of Dimes' Campaign Starts Wednesday In County

PICKAWAY GOAL IN NATIONAL DRIVE IS $5,000

Intensive Program To Raise Funds To Fight Polio Being Organized

Annual "March of Dimes" campaign to raise cash with which to fight infantile paralysis will begin Wednesday throughout Pickaway county. Don Henkle is the general chairman.

Citing that the goal in the drive, which will continue until Jan. 30, has been set at $5,000 as compared with the quota of $2,800 a year ago, Henkle voiced an appeal to the residents of Circleville and Pickaway county to "double" their contributions during the 1947 campaign.

Henkle said that Edward Amey will supervise the drive in Circleville, and Mrs. Harriet Hennessy is campaign chairman for the remainder of the county.

As part of a nation-wide attempt to curb the spread of polio, Henkle said, the Pickaway county drive will be the most energetic "March of Dimes" campaign ever staged in this community.

He said that every home in the city and county will be solicited by mail for donations and that the drive will be centered in the schools. In addition all 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, Granges, lodges, and fraternal and civic groups have been asked to lend their support.

All school children and teachers have been urged to take an active part in the campaign, which is part of the national drive by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which was founded by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. County superintendents and principals have offered their assistance. The national goal is $24,000,000.

Henkle said he had received a letter from Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, stressing the crucial importance of the 1947 "March of Dimes". Funds of the national organization, the letter said, were drained in last summer's battle against the dread disease.

Henkle said that movie theaters have again pledged their full cooperation in making the drive a success and that during the period from Jan. 24 to 30 contributions from theater audiences will be solicited at all performances.

BLUE CROSS TO START DRIVE ON WEDNESDAY

Wednesday marks the opening of the first annual Pickaway county Blue Cross community enrollment. The enrollment is being sponsored by the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce with headquarters in the county engineers office, Franklin street entrance, of the Court House.

The campaign runs through Saturday of this week. A Blue Cross representative will be on hand at all times to answer questions and explain the plan to the people.

Blue Cross is a non-profit organization. Previously only persons working in groups of five or more were eligible. Now, however, self-employed persons and those working where there are less than five employed by a common employer are eligible for Blue Cross membership. Included in these would be individuals like the farmer, the small merchant in business for himself, etc.

The Jaycee hospital committee is headed by James Yost.

WOULD EXTEND GROUPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—The state Republican steering committee Monday recommended continuation of the senate war investigating committee for a full year and extension of the small business committee for eight months.

LARGEST U. S. PASSENGER SHIP HAS TROUBLES

S. S. America Docks After Stormiest Atlantic Trip In Skipper's Career

BY JAMES POWERS
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—The biggest passenger ship ever built in the United States, the SS America, was safe at her pier today after the stormiest North Atlantic crossing in the 34 years sailing experience of her skipper.

Commodore Harry Manning, captain of the vessel, said after she docked last night at 11:45 p. m. EST—two and one-half days late—that waves 50 to 60 feet high had crashed over the ship which was hit by winds of "tropical hurricane force."

Despite the severe buffeting, however, not one of the 1,000 passengers or crew was hurt. The ship itself suffered minor damages of the bow, while she crashed into the mountainous seas.

Manning said he handled the vessel like a sailing ship to get her safely through, tacking and turning continuously. He said he was able to run only one day at full speed, 22 knots. The remainder of the time he sometimes had the vessel as low as 6 knots.

Many of the distinguished passengers aboard were lavish in their praise of the America despite the bad weather.

Lord Kemsley, British publisher of the Kemsley newspapers, and Lady Kemsley said the storm disappointed them because otherwise
